TROJAN
1974

James Hallgren

when i first saw the world, my eyes focused on the sun.
fire touched my finger tips.
i built cities to house my clans.
i worked from dawn to dusk to stay alive.
as primal man, i was lord.

now my eyes are closed.
the world has me by the neck and i choke
on its pollution.
i'm under the thumb of technology and crisis.
i work from dawn to dusk, dusk to dawn
to stay alive.
as modern man, i am slave.

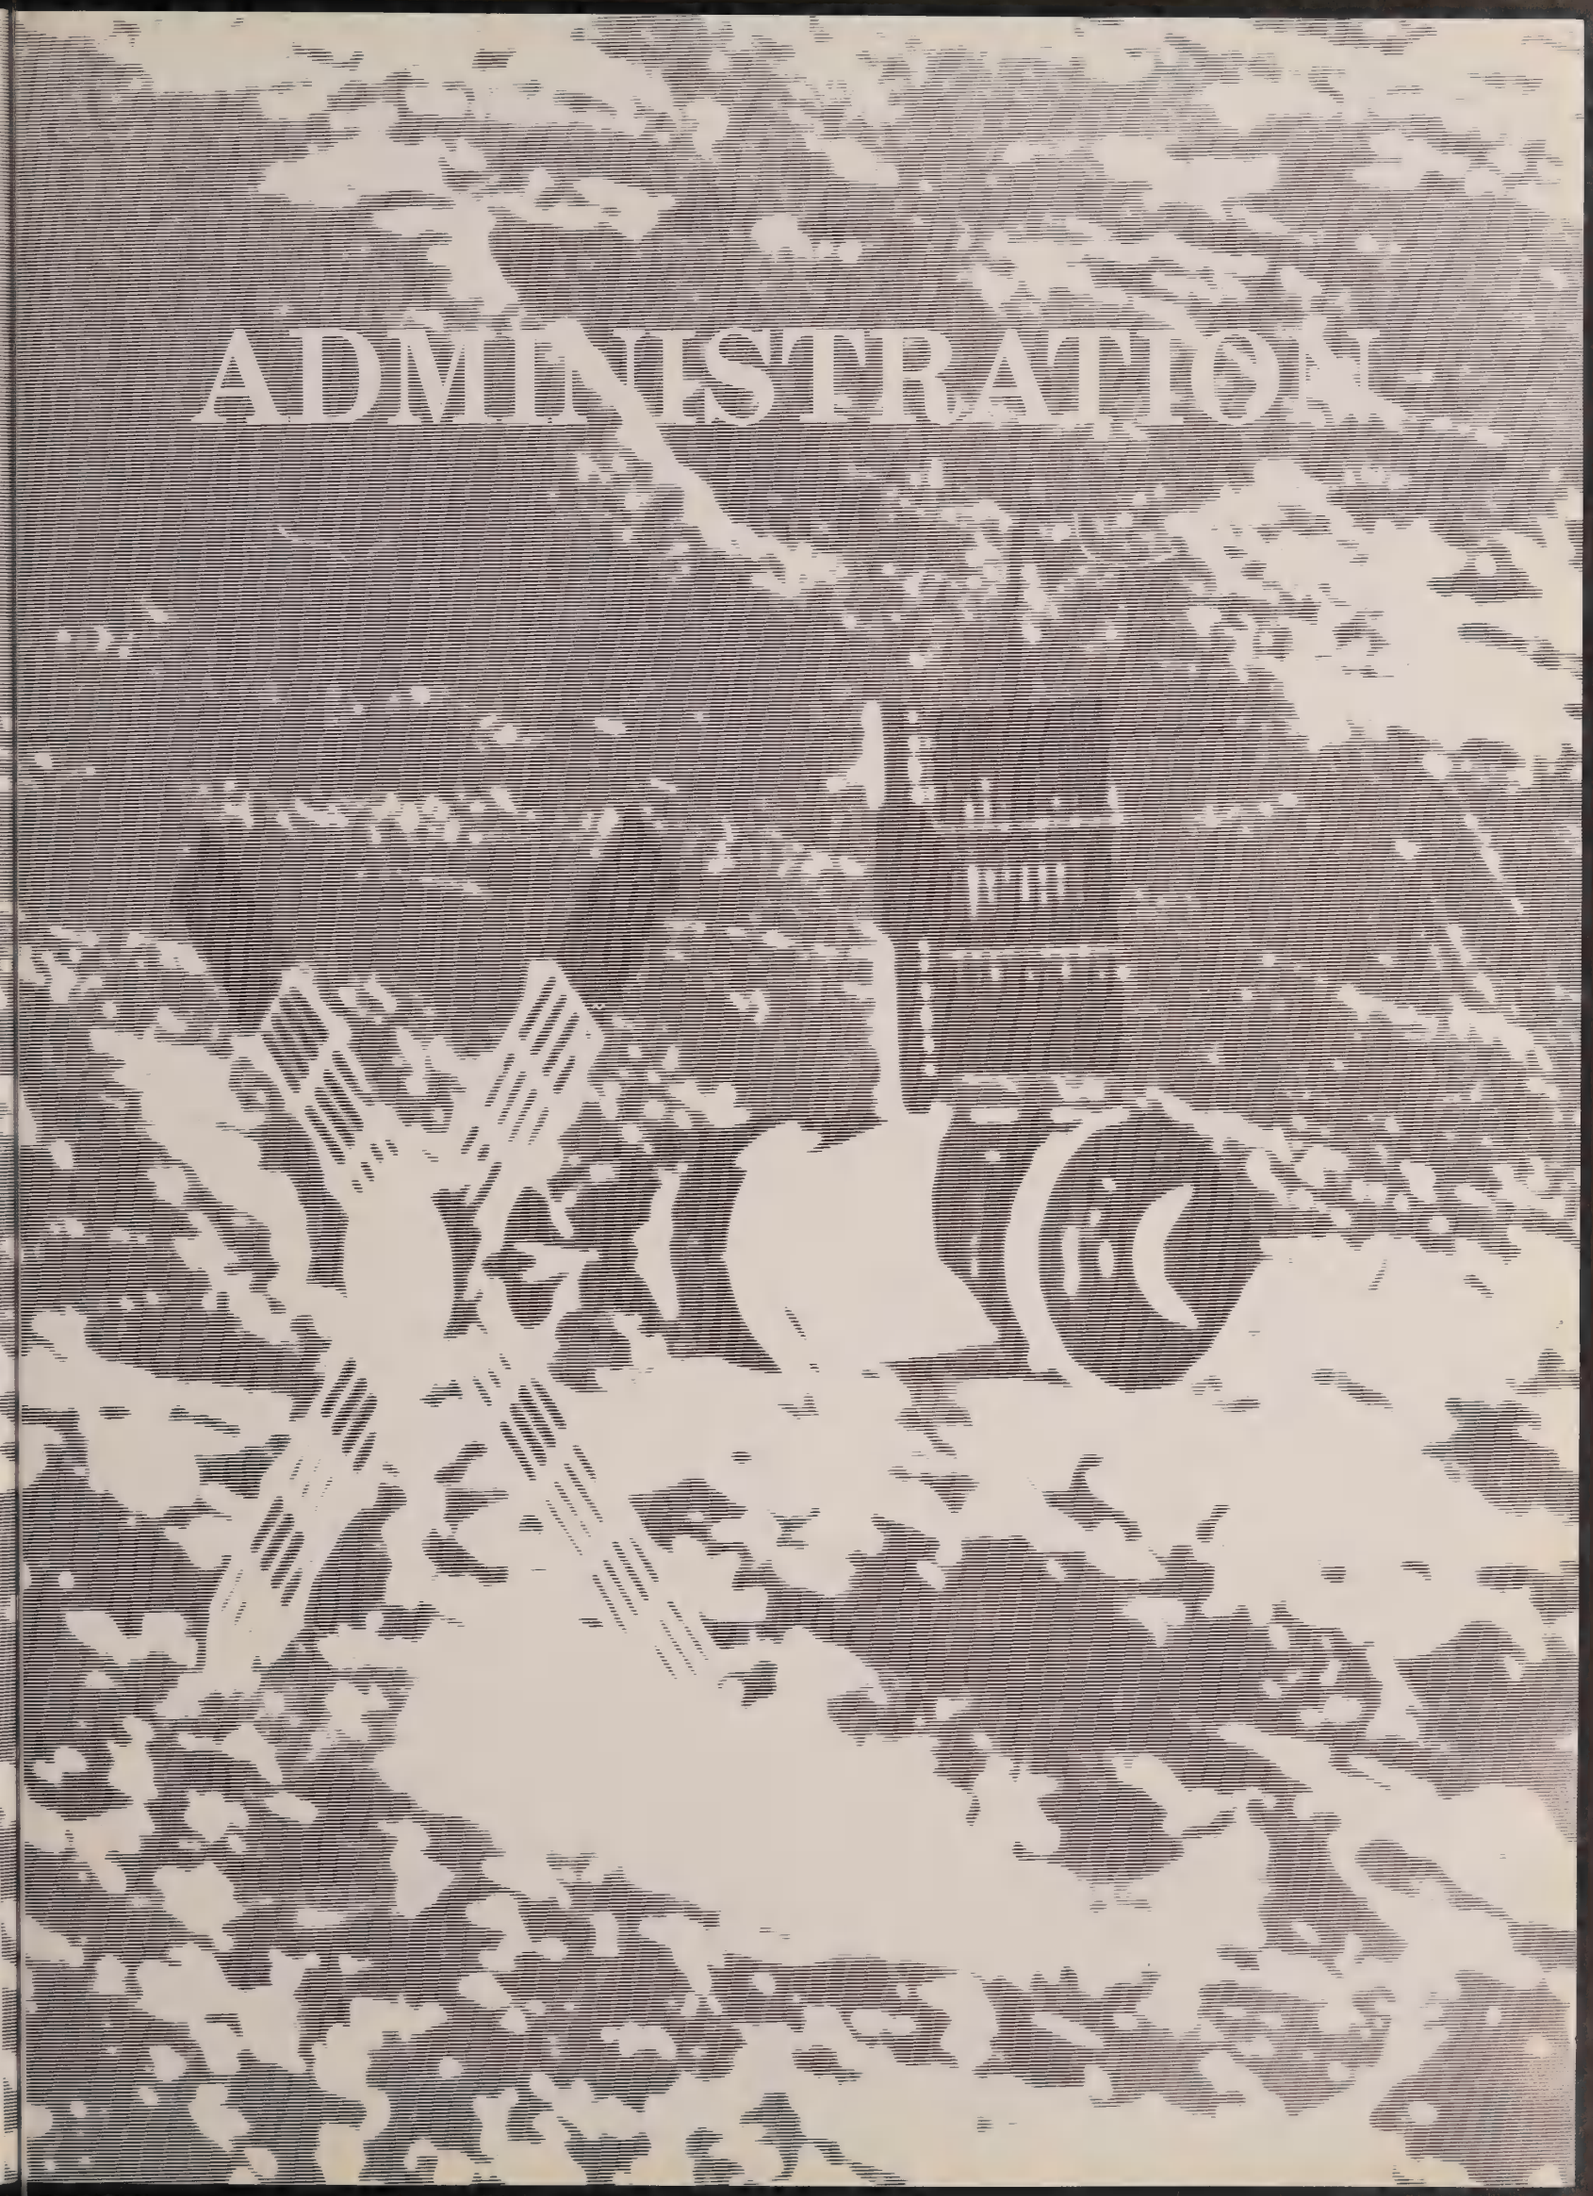
ADMINISTRATION



William J. Sample

President

These are times of challenge to our established institutions and beliefs. Nationally, and even throughout the world, old values and traditions are being questioned and concepts and ideals of a new culture are being explored. Although each generation has been prone to question the wisdom and customs of their elders, possibly at no other time in our history have our basic institutions undergone such critical examination and challenge.

Education has not escaped this scrutiny. Now, more than at any previous time, the intrinsic value of higher education is being questioned. No longer is a degree considered to be a vehicle of mobility; no longer is a diploma regarded as a credit card to financial success and social status. The value of the concept of higher education is not open to question, but the relevancy of the content of our teachings and the validity of our instructional programs and procedures are being tested.

We are proud that Cumberland County College is meeting the challenges of the times. We shall remain flexible in our abilities to adapt our course offerings and curricula to meet the demands of our community, and to continue to respond to its changing mores.

Congratulations to the graduates of the Class of 1974 and best wishes for your continuing success. To you who have not completed your work at Cumberland we look forward to your return to classes, and we pledge to you our continued interest in you as persons, and in your ambitions and goals as students.

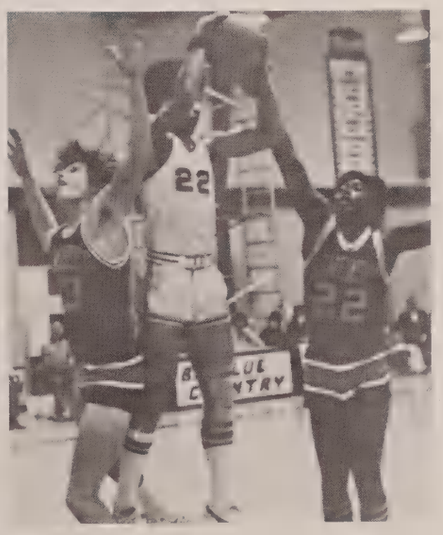
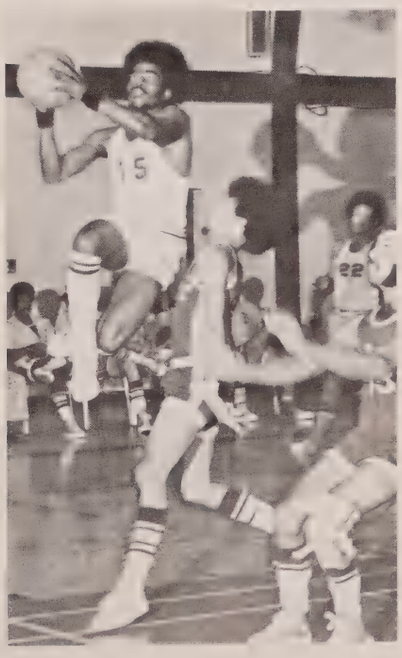
Cumberland County College's basketball team under fifth year coach Wally Nelson had a fine season. The team had its highest percentage ever, a 636%. Daniels finished as the College's all-time leading scorer with 1,034 career points. Daniels also was the first player at C.C.C. to be named to the first team of the GSAC team. The team was also made up of the rest of the outstanding sophomores Rick Pilichowski, Charlie Schiapelli, and Ed Hubert.





GIRLS BASKETBALL

The girl's basketball team began its season by losing the first four games. But not being discouraged and disheartened, they came back to win four games straight, then lost one, won two more with a final loss to atlantic.

It was a good year because we beat Gloucester our strongest rival, twice, and almost tied Atlantic, another big feat.

Our Sophomores formed the nucleaus—a group we are sure to miss next year. The Freshmen returning should however make a good starting nucleus.

The baseball season began with the six opening games being rained out. All this was compounded by injuries to key personnel and experience. The 1974 baseball had the greatest attitude of any Trojan team ever demonstrating great unity, spirit and determination to win. The result was the best win-loss record ever at the college. There was great leadership from the soph. Hudgins, Jacoby. Schiapelli, and Harris. The frosh showed excellent talent which will be returning next year. The 1975 season should be great.

BLACK HIST

The purpose of Black History Week is to emphasize an important but minority culture which without special emphasis is too easily ignored. There were dramatic presentations of poetry by black poets, interpretive dancers, and music of all types; rock, soul, gospel, and blues, also there were many different films about the culture. This week was not extravagant but it was beautiful, because black people worked together and shared all of their talents, abilities, and a lot of heart to make the whole thing a success.

ORY WEEK

The camping trip this year was one of the most outstanding fun times the students at the college had. It was a three day weekend of nice weather. There were plenty of activities to participate in during the days. It was an all around good trip for everyone.

Dr. Hanby who teaches anatomy and physiology to the nursing and physical education majors presents his information to the students in a clear, quiet, but humorous manner. He states that he enjoys teaching at a community college where he can get to know the students. Needless to say, the students equally enjoy getting to know him on a personal level.
